Serious Men (2010) About book: A brilliant read. Based in Mumbai, it clearly showcases the differences and the accepted friction between the Dalits and the Brahmins. Following the separate stories of interesting characters, it leads you through their experiences and makes you realize how life is a series of accomplishments and losses.

Worlds in Collision. These Serious Men may be clichés, but they're thoughtfully realized, interestingly conflicted and surprisingly sympathetic clichés. For one thing, each has a higher purpose. Ayyan's aspirations revolve around his son, Adi, a geeky child (even by Indian standards) afflicted with a hearing aid,...
